5.2 LICENSING PROCEDURE

5.2.1 Remove:

In order to participate in an ice race event, a person must hold a CASC-OR Competition Licence of the grade specified in the CASC-OR General Competition Regulations (Driver C or higher) except for a temporary weekend licence as specified in 5.2.3 below. You will need a club membership of a CASC-OR club to qualify for a licence.

Replace With:

In order to participate in an ice race event and collect championship points, a person must hold a CASC-OR Competition Licence of the grade specified in the CASC-OR General Competition Regulations (Driver C or higher) except for a Temporary Licence, Weekend Pass or Season Pass as specified in 5.2.3, 5.2.4 and 5.2.5 below. You will require a club membership of a CASC-OR club to qualify for a licence.

5.2.3 TEMPORARY LICENSE – NEW COMPETITOR

Remove:

- The competitor not be eligible to accumulate series points

Replace with:

- The competitor will NOT be eligible for class and championship points

Added note that Temporary licences will be retired at the end of the 2026 season.

ADD THE FOLLOWING:

5.2.4 WEEKEND PASS

This is for drivers who have ice raced previously and/or would like to race on a weekend and do not hold a valid competition licence.

- The cost of the pass is $45 per weekend for 2026
- You may run multiple weekends, but you must purchase the Weekend Pass for each event.
- You must complete the Rookie Quiz (this may be waived by the Ice Race Director/Rookie School Chief Instructor)
- It is recommended that the driver be accompanied by an experienced ice race driver, as passenger, during the on-track sessions of the event. The Clerk may require an experience passenger if they deem it necessary.
- If you run more than one weekend under a Weekend Pass you will not be eligible for Rookie status under the CASC-OR Competition License.

- You will be assigned a car number once your registration has been reviewed. Note: Number boards may not be available - please be prepared to create your own number board as per the Ice Race Regulations Appendix A: 2026 Ice Race Regulations.
- You will NOT be scored in the CASC-OR Ice Race Class and Championship.

5.2.5 SEASON PASS

This is for those who have previously ice raced and/or do not hold a valid competition licence and would like to participate in multiple weekends.

- The cost of the pass is $110 for 2026
- You must complete the Rookie Quiz (this may be waived by the Ice Race Director/Rookie School Chief Instructor)
- You must participate in Rookie School on your first weekend (this may be waived by the Ice Race Director/Rookie School Chief Instructor)
- If you run more than one weekend under a Season Pass you will not be eligible for Rookie status under the CASC-OR Competition License.
- You will be assigned a car number once your registration has been reviewed. Note: You must create your own number board as per the Ice Race Regulations - Appendix A: 2026 Ice Race Regulations.
- You will NOT be scored in the CASC-OR Ice Race Class and Championship.

5.2.6 PASS UPGRADE TO FULL CASC LICENSE

- The Weekend and Season Pass may be upgraded to a full CASC-OR Competition Licence - request must be received not later than February 9, 2026 (or the end of the third event).
- Previous weekends results will not be rescored in the Ice Race Championship. Points will be accumulated from the date of the request.
